

UNDECIMO PUNTO DEL ORDEN DEL DIA

Informes de la Mesa del Consejo de Administración: Copatrocinio de la OIT en el ONUSIDA

1. El Programa Conjunto de las Naciones Unidas sobre el VIH/SIDA (ONUSIDA) se inició el 1.º de enero de 1996, con seis copatrocinadores: el PNUD, la UNESCO, el FNUAP, el UNICEF, la OMS y el Banco Mundial. La División de Cooperación entre Organizaciones (UNDCP) se unió a ellos en marzo de 1999. El copatrocinio del ONUSIDA está abierto a todas las organizaciones especializadas de las Naciones Unidas, e implica la aceptación del Memorándum de Entendimiento (anexo I), actualmente en vigor. Ello supone la copropiedad del Programa, que significa colaborar en la planificación y ejecución de las actividades y participar equitativamente en las responsabilidades.
2. La OIT firmó en junio de 2000 un «Acuerdo marco de cooperación» con el Programa ONUSIDA (anexo II), por el cual las dos organizaciones especializadas se ponían de acuerdo para fortalecer la cooperación entre sus programas, tanto a nivel internacional como nacional. Este Acuerdo se considera de hecho como el punto de partida de un proceso encaminado al copatrocinio, y el Director General se mostró de acuerdo (el 24 de mayo de 2001) en iniciar el proceso por el que la OIT se convertiría en organismo copatrocinador del ONUSIDA.
3. El Director Ejecutivo del ONUSIDA ha acogido con la mayor satisfacción el proyecto de Repertorio de recomendaciones prácticas sobre el VIH/SIDA y el mundo del trabajo ¹, y recomienda encarecidamente su adopción como base de una política sobre el VIH/SIDA, tanto dentro de la Oficina como en todo el sistema de las Naciones Unidas.
4. En su calidad de organismo copatrocinador, la OIT se compromete a dar su apoyo al presupuesto y plan de trabajo bienal que se adopte en las reuniones de la Junta Coordinadora del Programa (JCP). Ello no supone una contribución financiera prorrateada al presupuesto, pero significa que la OIT participará en el desarrollo del presupuesto y del programa de trabajo, que incluye sus propias actividades y la movilización de los correspondientes recursos. No hay una participación financiera directa por parte de los copatrocinadores en el funcionamiento del ONUSIDA, aunque se producirán ciertos costos indirectos en concepto de asistencia a las reuniones del Comité de Organizaciones Copatrocinadoras y de la JCP.

5. Las actividades que lleva a cabo la OIT en el marco de su propio programa (el Programa de la OIT sobre el VIH/SIDA y el mundo del trabajo (OIT/SIDA)), continuarán estando bajo el control completo de la OIT. El copatrocinio supone que las actividades que lleve a cabo el Programa OIT/SIDA sean coherentes con los objetivos y principios del ONUSIDA. Los copatrocinadores se comprometen a incorporar las políticas, estrategias y directrices técnicas desarrolladas por el ONUSIDA, y transferirlas a los programas de política y estrategia sobre VIH/SIDA de las organizaciones copatrocinadoras. La duplicación de funciones se evita por medio de la participación en los mecanismos coordinadores del ONUSIDA y en particular en el Comité de Organizaciones Copatrocinadoras. Se espera que los organismos copatrocinadores participen activamente en los Grupos Temáticos de las Naciones Unidas sobre el terreno, como ya se hace en cerca de una docena de lugares de destino de la OIT.
6. El ONUSIDA se puso en marcha en respuesta al reconocimiento por parte de la comunidad internacional del hecho de que está empeorando el impacto del VIH/SIDA sobre el desarrollo; de la necesidad de una respuesta multisectorial, tanto nacional como internacional, y de la urgente necesidad de coordinar los diversos programas VIH/SIDA que existen en el sistema de las Naciones Unidas. La OIT acepta la lógica de este planteamiento, y desea fortalecer el Programa Conjunto de las Naciones Unidas a través de su participación activa como organismo copatrocinador.
7. El Consejo de Administración tal vez estime oportuno facultar al Director General para que firme el Memorándum de Entendimiento con el ONUSIDA, de modo que la OIT se convierta en organismo copatrocinador del ONUSIDA.

- (f) advocate greater political commitment in responding to the epidemic at global and country levels, including the mobilization and allocation of adequate resources for HIV/AIDS-related activities.

III. Co-sponsorship

- 3.1. The co-sponsoring organizations are committed to working together and contributing to UNAIDS. UNAIDS will draw upon the experience and strengths of the co-sponsoring organizations to develop its HIV/AIDS-related policies, strategies and technical guidelines, which will be incorporated by each of them into their policy and strategy mainstream, subject to their governance processes and reflected in the activities specific to their own mandates.
- 3.2. The activities of the co-sponsoring organizations relating primarily to HIV/AIDS at global level shall be within the context of the global workplan of UNAIDS, developed in collaboration with the co-sponsoring organizations. HIV/AIDS activities of the co-sponsoring organizations at country level shall function within the framework of national plans and priorities and the resident coordinator system, where it exists.

IV. Structure and organization of UNAIDS

- 4.1. At global level, UNAIDS consists of the Programme Coordinating Board (PCB), the Committee of Co-sponsoring Organizations (CCO) and the Secretariat.
- 4.2. At country level, UNAIDS will operate through a “UN theme group on HIV/AIDS” and will have Secretariat staff in selected countries.

V. Programme Coordinating Board

The Programme Coordinating Board (PCB) shall act as the governing body on all programmatic issues concerning policy, strategy, finance, monitoring and evaluation of UNAIDS. Its composition and functions shall be determined by ECOSOC as well as the appropriate governing bodies of the co-sponsoring organizations.

VI. Committee of co-sponsoring organizations

- 6.1. The Committee of Co-sponsoring Organizations (CCO) shall serve as the forum for the co-sponsoring organizations to meet on a regular basis to consider matters concerning UNAIDS and shall provide the input of the co-sponsoring organizations into the policies and strategies of UNAIDS.
- 6.2. The CCO shall be comprised of the executive head, or his/her designated representative, of each of the co-sponsoring organizations. Members of the CCO may be accompanied by a limited number of advisers.
- 6.3. The CCO shall have the following functions:
 - (i) to review workplans and the proposed programme budget for each coming financial period, prepared by the Executive Director and reviewed by any appropriate committee established for the purpose, in time for presentation to the PCB;

 - (vii) to decide, on behalf of the PCB, on issues referred to it for this purpose by the PCB.
- 6.4. The CCO may establish such advisory committees as it deems necessary for the accomplishment of its work.

VII. UNAIDS Secretariat

- 7.1. An Executive Director shall head the UNAIDS Secretariat. The Executive Director shall be appointed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, upon the consensus recommendation of the co-sponsoring organizations. The appointment shall be implemented by the agency providing administration of UNAIDS. The Executive Director shall be responsible for the overall management of UNAIDS. The Executive Director may establish such policy and technical advisory committees as may be required.
- 7.2. The Executive Director shall prepare a biennial workplan and budget for UNAIDS, which shall be submitted to the PCB for approval, following review by the CCO.
- 7.3. The Executive Director shall report to the PCB, after consultation with the CCO, on all major programme, budget and operational issues of UNAIDS.
- 7.4. The Executive Director shall be the Secretary of the PCB and of the CCO.

VIII. Global level

At global level, UNAIDS will provide support in policy formulation, strategic planning, technical guidance, research and development, advocacy and external relations. Working closely with the appropriate organizations, UNAIDS will also support normative activities relating to HIV/AIDS in areas such as social and economic planning, population, culture, education, health, community development and social mobilization, sexual and reproductive health, and women and adolescents.

IX. Country level

- 9.1. It is recognized that national governments have the ultimate responsibility for the coordination of HIV/AIDS issues at country level. To this end, the arrangements of UNAIDS for coordinating HIV/AIDS activities will complement and support government efforts for national development planning. The co-sponsoring organizations shall incorporate the normative work undertaken by UNAIDS at global level on policy, strategy and technical matters into their HIV/AIDS activities and related activities undertaken at country level, consistent with national plans and priorities of the countries concerned. An important function of UNAIDS will be to strengthen national capacities to plan, coordinate, implement and monitor the overall response to HIV/AIDS. The participation in UNAIDS of six organizations of the United Nations system will ensure the provision of technical and financial assistance to national activities in a coordinated multisectoral manner. This will strengthen intersectoral coordination of HIV/AIDS activities and will facilitate further incorporation of these activities in national programme and planning processes.
- 9.2. Within the framework of General Assembly resolutions 44/211 and 47/199, the resident coordinator shall establish a UN theme group on HIV/AIDS in countries for carrying out HIV/AIDS and related activities and designate a chairperson from among the members of the theme group, bearing in mind the desirability of making a selection reflecting the consensus views of the co-sponsoring organizations present in the country concerned. In countries where the resident coordinator system does not exist or where only one of the co-sponsoring organizations is present, alternate arrangements shall be made, in agreement with the national authorities, to facilitate the support to the national response to HIV/AIDS.
- 9.3. UNAIDS will facilitate coordination among the co-sponsoring organizations at country level and may decide to station staff of the Secretariat in selected countries to support the chairperson of the UN theme group on HIV/AIDS.

X. Flow of UNAIDS funds

- 10.1. Funds for UNAIDS activities at global level will be obtained through appropriate common global means, including a global appeal.
- 10.2. Funding for country-level HIV/AIDS-related activities will be obtained primarily through existing fund-raising mechanisms of the co-sponsoring organizations.

XI. Administration of UNAIDS

- 11.1. WHO shall provide administration of UNAIDS. It shall establish a separate trust fund (entitled "UNAIDS Trust Fund"), under its financial regulations and rules, for the receipt and disbursement of financial contributions to UNAIDS.
- 11.2. Financial contributions to the UNAIDS Trust Fund may consist of voluntary cash contributions received from co-sponsoring organizations, from governments of member States of any of the co-sponsoring organizations, from intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, as well as from commercial enterprises and individuals. In addition, WHO may also receive, in trust for UNAIDS, contributions in kind, e.g. staff, equipment, facilities or services. The resources of UNAIDS shall consist of the aforesaid cash and in-kind contributions

- 11.3. All expenditure under UNAIDS shall be authorized by the Executive Director against funds received or committed, in accordance with the WHO's financial regulations and rules.
- 11.4. The Executive Director shall be responsible for the selection, supervision, promotion and termination of all secretariat staff, acting within the staff regulations and rules of WHO which will be adjusted, as necessary, to take into account special needs of UNAIDS. The appointment, promotion and termination of the Secretariat staff shall be implemented by WHO.
- 11.5. All Secretariat staff shall be recruited for service with UNAIDS only. WHO shall be responsible for administrative matters of their employment.
- 11.6. Subject to the possible need to make special arrangements to take into account the particular operational needs of UNAIDS, the operation of UNAIDS shall be carried out in accordance with the administrative and financial regulations, rules and procedures of WHO. WHO shall, in agreement with the executive director, elaborate such further details of the administration of UNAIDS as are necessary for its proper functioning.
- 11.7. WHO shall be entitled to apply a charge covering its costs in providing administration of UNAIDS.

XII. Final provisions

- 12.1. This Memorandum of Understanding shall enter into force upon signature of the executive heads of all six co-sponsoring organizations listed in the preamble to this Memorandum of Understanding.
- 12.2. After the first anniversary of the entry into force of this Memorandum of Understanding and with the unanimous agreement of the existing co-sponsoring organizations, other United Nations system organizations may become co-sponsoring organizations by signature of the Memorandum of Understanding.

Cooperation framework between the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS) and the International Labour Organization (ILO)

Whereas the primary goal of the ILO is to promote opportunities for women and men to obtain decent and productive work, in conditions of freedom, equity, security and human dignity;

Whereas UNAIDS¹ has been given the primary task of mobilizing a broad-based response to the global health and development challenges posed by HIV/AIDS, in view of the fact that the HIV epidemic has reached every country in the world, and more than 95 per cent of all HIV-infected people live in developing countries;

Whereas UNAIDS and the ILO recognize that it is in their mutual interest to intensify cooperation between themselves and to establish appropriate working procedures to that effect;

Now, therefore, UNAIDS and the ILO have agreed as follows:

1. The purpose of this cooperation framework is to strengthen cooperation between UNAIDS and the ILO. This cooperation framework recognizes the expertise of each institution and seeks to establish operational and practical modalities of cooperation in order to alleviate the impact of the human immunodeficiency virus/acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (HIV/AIDS) on the world of work and to reduce workers' vulnerability to HIV/AIDS.
2. UNAIDS and the ILO recognize the need to benefit from their respective comparative advantages within the parameters of this cooperation framework. In this regards, the two institutions are committed to mobilizing and carrying out a broad-based response to the problem of HIV/AIDS in the world of work.
3. In the interest of promoting smooth and productive collaboration between UNAIDS and the ILO, the following principles will govern their relationship in order to define specific mechanisms that will facilitate collaboration and cooperation:
 - (a) UNAIDS and the ILO constitute centres of expertise for the United Nations system in their respective fields of endeavour; the two organizations will collaborate, both at the headquarters and at the country levels;
 - (b) at the country level, UNAIDS works through UN theme groups on HIV/AIDS, country programme advisers, and intercountry teams. In its effort to lead the expanded response to the HIV/AIDS epidemic, the UNAIDS Secretariat works in partnership with governments, non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and the business sector as well as its seven co-sponsors (UNICEF, UNDP, UNDCP, UNFPA, UNESCO, WHO and the World Bank), and other regional and international bodies. In its efforts to promote its values and principles, the ILO works in partnership with its constituents (i.e.

governments and employers' and workers' organizations), regional and international organizations and NGOs. All these partners constitute vital links for the facilitation and development of an effective cooperation framework.

4. UNAIDS and the ILO will formally inform their respective country-based staff of this cooperation framework and will provide appropriate additional guidance for cooperation at the field level. Both UNAIDS and the ILO are fully committed to collaborating and working with the UN country teams, which offer opportunities to conduct, in a systematic manner, exchange of expertise and to develop joint initiatives and strategic planning where possible.
5. UNAIDS and the ILO will undertake a series of joint activities focused on:
 - (a) awareness-raising of the incidence and impact of the HIV/AIDS epidemic on the world of work through, among other things, information, education and communication campaigns to be implemented in partnership with ILO constituents;
 - (b) the integration of AIDS-related interventions appropriate in the world of work at ILO headquarters and field levels;
 - (c) the identification and promotion of experiences at the national and enterprise levels, including best practices, addressing the issue of HIV/AIDS in the world of work. These will be disseminated through discussion forums, integrated prevention programmes targeted at workers and their families, particularly youth and women, or in the form of technical materials and case studies;
 - (d) the identification of technical resource networks at the regional and country levels and increase in the level of technical expertise on HIV/AIDS-related issues;
 - (e) the provision of appropriate technical assistance, as and when requested, to national AIDS programmes and other governmental and non-governmental mechanisms in the area of impact alleviation and reduction of vulnerability to HIV/AIDS and in regard to other HIV/AIDS-related issues;
 - (f) the investigation of specific factors and issues in the world of work as they relate to HIV/AIDS that must be addressed for more effective responses;
 - (g) the mobilization of partnerships with relevant sectors of the national and international community for their involvement and support, both technical and financial, towards HIV/AIDS initiatives in the world of work.
6. UNAIDS and the ILO will establish the practice of regular attendance at the meetings of each other's governing bodies, inter-agency coordination meetings and working-level technical meetings of mutual concern.
7. In order to permit a regular review of the implementation of this cooperation framework and to encourage a regular consultation process, an annual meeting of the two organizations will be convened, alternating between the Secretariat of UNAIDS and the headquarters of the ILO.
8. Any financial commitment on the part of either the UNAIDS Secretariat or the ILO to each other's activities will be subject to a specific separate agreement.

9. This cooperation framework will take effect on the date of signature indicated below. It may be modified at the request of any of the parties by mutual agreement and shall continue to be in force so long as the two parties agree.
