XXIst Meeting of European Labour Court Judges
30 September – 1 October 2013
Vienna, Austria

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is my pleasure to inform you that the XXIst European Labour Court Judges Meeting will be held on 30 September – 1 October 2013 at the Supreme Court of Austria in Vienna.

The Organizing Committee of the Meeting has, as in the past, requested the International Labour Office to provide the necessary support services. I have the honour therefore to invite you on behalf of the Committee to this meeting.

The Organizing Committee members are:

- Judge Gerhard Kuras, Supreme Court of Austria;
- Judge Nili Arad, President of the National Labour Court of Israel;
- Judge Jorma Saloheimo, President of the Labour Court of Finland;
- Judge Niels Waage, Vice-president of the Labour Court of Denmark;
- Judge Mario Eylert, Federal Labour Court of Germany;
- Judge Mercédesz Kádár, Labour Court of Hungary;
- Judge Steve Adler, former President of the National Labour Court of Israel;
- Angelika Muller, Governance and Tripartism Department, ILO.

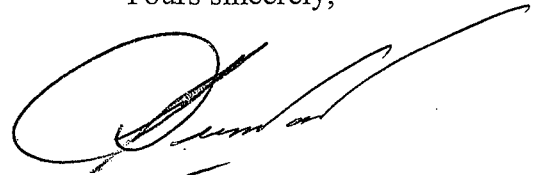

The topics for discussion this year are the following (questionnaires will be sent to participants later):

- Employment through temporary work agencies;
- Discussion of leading cases of national labour courts.

As before, it will be up to the participants to cover their own costs. The details concerning accommodation in Vienna will follow.

We sincerely hope that it will be possible for you to attend. Kindly confirm your participation 15 April 2013 by replying directly to Ms. Rita Natola (natola@ilo.org),¹ who assists Ms. Angelika Muller (mullera@ilo.org) in coordinating this meeting. Please also provide your current address, telephone and fax numbers and e-mail address.

Yours sincerely,
